sweet hearts in a coun try town, the neigh bors say, — Lived went a way, and from that day the world's been sad, — He hap pi ly the whole day long, — Un re al iz es his mis take, — He til one day he told her he must go a way; — She list ened to the gos sips, and that's al ways bad, — For won dered then what could be wrong. — He they don't care whose heart they break. — As said "You know it's true I love you best of all, — And time went on he longed to see his girl a gain, — And yet it's best that we should part." — so by chance one day they met, — Just as he went — a way, they heard his sweet — heart say, As they met face — to face, there was a fond — em brace, Though it 'most broke — her Though these words haunt — him
